

Archie to the Rescue!

ReadMember

Made to be read together.

Written by Kai

SCENE 1

Luka and Maimai, best friends forever, were having the best day! "Vroom, vroom!" shouted Luka, pushing his shiny red race car across the colorful rug. Maimai giggled, sending his own blue car zooming right behind. Sunlight streamed into their cozy living room, making their playtime extra bright. Archie, their clever border collie, watched from his comfy spot, tail giving a happy tap-tap-tap. Luka's red car, so fast and sleek, was winning the race! But oh no! With one final, super-speedy push, it zoomed a little too far. WHOOSH! It disappeared right under the big, comfy sofa!

SCENE 4

Luka and Maimai erupted in joyful cheers! "You did it, Archie!" Luka exclaimed, scooping up his clever border collie for a big, warm hug. Archie's tail wagged so fast it was a blur. Maimai, always thoughtful, quickly found a yummy treat from his pocket and offered it to their furry hero. Archie happily munched on his reward, his intelligent eyes sparkling. With the red race car safely back in hand, the boys grinned at each other. Playtime was back on! They spent the rest of the afternoon racing cars and throwing Archie's favorite squeaky ball, making sure their smart dog felt like the most special friend in the world.

SCENE 2

Luka and Maimai groaned. "It's stuck!" cried Luka, his voice a little whiny. They lay on their tummies, stretching their arms as far as they could. Their fingers brushed against the smooth red car, but it was just out of reach. Maimai found a long ruler and poked it under the sofa, trying to nudge the car closer. "Almost!" he huffed, but the car just slid further into the dusty shadows. Frustration bubbled up. Archie, their clever border collie, watched them with his head tilted. His intelligent eyes followed every stretch and poke. He seemed to understand their problem.

SCENE 3

Archie watched Luka and Maimai struggle. His intelligent eyes followed their every stretch and poke. He saw their frowns and heard their sighs. A clever idea sparked in his furry head! With a soft woof, Archie padded closer to the big sofa. He sniffed the dusty floor, then carefully nudged the edge of the sofa with his wet nose. The red car was still there, just out of reach. Archie lay down, his tail giving a tiny wag. Then, with amazing precision, he extended a black and white paw. Wiggle, wiggle! He hooked his paw around the little red car. Slowly, gently, he pulled.